Mr Perceval

Sir Francis Burdets conduct upon the opening of Parliament in anticipating the motion of the Address

19064

Mr Perceval presents his humble duty to your Royal Highness & has the honor to acquaint your Royal Highness that as soon as the Speech was read by the Speaker Sir Francis Burdets anticipated Lord Jocelyn, and proceeded with a long Speech to move an address containing all the powerful views of Policy which he so frequently brings forward - he was seconded by Lord Cochrane - and Jocelyn then rose to move his address in the shape of an amendment to Sir Francis Burdets Address. Motion - and he was seconded by Capt. Vye; - Mr Perceval had been His Royal Highness
The Prince Regent

apprehension that the very unexpected course of proceeding adopted by Mr Hauser would have discomforted Lord Jocelyn & left Vane and prevented them from executing their purpose; but they were not at all put out by it, and both of them made very good speeches - Mr Whitbread then said that he could neither vote for the motion nor the amendment - Mr Bouverie said the same, the Abj. General & Mr Devereux said a few words as did Mr Fisher - and the House divided against Mr Hauser Purdett's addrs. 230. to 1.

Mr Bouverie gave notice of the intention of some Friends of his, he did not mention his name, to move for a Committee to Enquire into the State of Ireland ~~but did not~~
