My Dear Sir

I can easily conceive how much you must be pressed by immediate business; - & were not the matter, in which you have already had the kindness to take so much trouble, of very great importance to me, I would not now intrude upon your time. -

I sent you that hideous Bore, call'd a long letter, on Christmas Eve. - Do me the favour to let me know whether anything has been done, or is likely soon to be done, relative to its contents. - Pardon my anxiety, believe, if you can, my suspense; & believe me,

Yours, my Dear Sir,
with great regard,

G. Colman
