Sir,

As a mark of our humble duty and respect, We beg leave to solicit Your Royal Highnesses acceptance of the accompanying Fowling Piece, the manufacture of a British Workman; which will, We hope, afford Your Royal Highness a pleasing proof of the perfection to which the art of Gun making has been brought in this Country.

Permit us to add the expression of the gratification We shall experience at finding, that this humble tribute of our devotion to Your Royal Highness, is acceptable to You: and the still greater pleasure that would be afforded us, in an opportunity of testifying

the

the sentiments of zeal, devotion, and duty, with which We have the honor to subscribe ourselves,

Sir,

Your Royal Highnesses
most obedient,
and very humble Servants.
