My Dear Lord

The Baron de Behansen has just called upon me, to request an early audience of your Lordship for the purpose of communicating to you Dispatches which he has this day received from Stockholm.

These Dispatches direct him to state to you - that Sweden is prepared to conclude peace with England; <sup>that</sup> nephew is to come over as Secretary of Legation.

The conduct of the French in Pomerania appears to have urged the Swedish Govt. to this proposal.

I am, My Dear Lord,
Yours affectionately obliged
