Instructions for Lord
Castlereagh

19304

Foreign Office
24th Feb'y 1812

Lord Castlereagh
for your Royal Highness's approbation the instructions for Lord Castlereagh.
I have considered your Royal Highness's Confidential Servants deem it most prudent not to refer to your Royal Highness's Letter addressed to the Emperor, the omission of returning an answer being a circumstance requiring special notice, if adverted to at all, ~~which~~ the whole they considered it best to keep it over from the awkward situation in which the communication of it ~~at~~ is like a period to Count Romanzoff had placed that Minister
