

A.A. No.

19

Lord Baskine

27. July. 1812. To

Secrets

The Earl of Moira

19325

Exhume

My dear Lord

Knowing as I do the Prince's affectionate temper & character, I have no doubt that H. R. H. must be greatly displeas'd on the subject which I have privately heard of; but it appears to me that there is a clear road out of expunging you even to the misinstruction of a moment, as you are too high a character to lose a moment's estimation ever on mistaken grounds - The Prince has a little opportunity of showing a firm & constant mind toward you by looking up the ribbon in his drawers for the presents

"The longest day will have an end"

I do not mean by this to offer you any advice - Nobody can judge for you -

You know how much I love both the Prince & yourself ever yours

July 27th 1812

Esther