

A.A. No. 20.

Portland House
Kensington Road W.8
July 20. 1812.

Sir.

I have to apologise for troubling you with this letter, which under any other circumstances I would not have ventured to have done. Among my late father's property I find seven portraits in oil back painted to the same artist & of the same sizes as those H. H. H. The Prince Regent has hanging up in the Armory at Carlton House, they are portraits of His present Majesty, His late Majesty, The Duke of Cumberland uncle to His present Majesty, The late King of Denmark Marshal Saxe the Marquis of Granby & the late Lord of Pembroke. They are not pictures of any value, but Christie who I employ to value part of the property valued them at forty guineas viz two at seven guineas one at six guineas & four at five guineas but having been informed that H. B.

H. collect portraits of this description I should feel exceedingly obliged if you would take an opportunity of mentioning them to H. B. H. & whose collection of Equestrian portraits they would certainly be an acquisition. The price I fix on them is in Christie's valuation as I want no account with H. B. H. one shipping charge for them than I would any other person.

I am with great regard
Sir

Your most obedient humble servant

Major Genl. Turner.
