

5 March 1812

Lord Chalmers

19356

Chalmers House

March 5th 1812

Sir,

I have the Honor to assure you that I am highly gratified by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent's most gracious Intentions towards me, and I am at this moment going to call on Him to receive His further Commands.

Allow me to add that I feel very sensible of your obliging Expressions upon this occasion; & that I shall avail myself of your very obliging offer to render me assistance in the Execution of my Duty & of which I am aware I shall stand in need.

I have the Honor to be

Sir

Your most Obedient

& most Humble Servant

Thundersley

I shall not fail to attend to the Necessity of a Member of Parliament being sworn in to day.