Exposition de la P. de la République

Somerset Place
March 8th 1812.

Sir

Understanding that my not having the power of a Vote in Parliament is an Objection to my being again received in your Royal Highness's Household, I humbly presume to suggest to your Royal Highness, that there are numerous Instances of People without Seats in the House, who have Places of double the Emolument of what mine would be were I honoured with your Royal Highness's Appointment, such as Mr. George Villiers in his Majesty's Household, and L^d. George Seymour in the Secise with other lucrative Situations; I put it therefore as a Point of Belong to your Royal Highness, whether you will, far depart from the inherent Goodnature of your disposition, as to hold me up a marked Object to the World of having apparently incurred your Displeasure, who was once honoured with your Partiality, and who is not conscious of having intentionally at any time done any thing to forfeit it

I beg pardon for again intruding upon your Royal Highness, but I trust my Anxiety upon the foregoing subject will plead my excuse.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Y^r Royal Highness's most obliged and devoted servant
