

March 9th 1812.

9 March 1812
 Lord Moira

appointment of Col Mackean

Sir

The King of the Castles of the Tower demands of him that he shall address himself immediately to his Sovereign on any circumstance relating to that Palace and Porters.

With most humble Devotion, therefore,
 I beg leave to solicit your Royal High-
 -ness's gracious approbation of Lieute-nant Colonel Mackean of the late breadalbane Penitentes to be Major of the Tower, in the room of Colonel Matthew Smith deceased.

With the most profound respect
I remain

Sir

Your Royal Highness's most humble and most dutiful servant

Perceval

The Prince Regent.
