

Duke of Montrose to Col. B. Bloomfield

19389-90

B. Bloomfield

Green. L. 13th March 1812

Sir

I have received the honor of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent's Commands, & shall wait upon His Royal Highness as ordered, on Tuesday, at the hour which shall be signified to me.

The names of the Pages of Honor I shall send to the office, for the purpose of having them inserted in the Gazette, & ordering the appointments to be made out for His Royal

Duke
19
w Thy Majestys signature.

Before Tuesday I shall probably request the pleasure of seeing you again, to converse on the subject of the establishments, which will require a little more consideration, before I can take His Royal Highness's first commands on the subject of preparing some arrangement for His Royal Highness's consideration.

I have the honor to be Sir

Duke of Montrose to Col. B. Bloomfield

19390

with great consideration

your obedient servant

W. Montrose

Colonel Bloomfield.
