duty to your Royal Highness, and acquaints your R^{ty} Highness that in order to secure the passing of the new ~~Commission~~ for the Admiralty before the holidays, it will be necessary to put it in proper immediately -

Lord Melville, whom your R^{ty} Highness has graciously pleased to appoint as Successor to Mr Yorke, is desirous of having Admiral Hope succeed Lord Prebend Prebster, whose retirement Mr Perceval understands to

H R Highness
The Duke of Devon

be arranged by Mr. Richard, perfect satisfaction, and Mr. William Dundas, in the room of Mr. Pultney, who has some time since succeeded as Clerk to the Privy Council -

If your Royal Highness should be graciously pleased to approve of this arrangement, Mr. Dundas will have the Warrant for the said commission transmitted to your Highness, for signature without delay.
