

19 March 1812

Mr Perceval

19433

My Sir

I regret that by mistake I have sent you the new Commission for the Admiralty, where I had wished to be kept back from H. R. H. that I had taken his pleasure upon the proposed arrangement, has already been transmitted to Lord Howe for Signature - If you have not yet written to the Duke - I wish he were obliged to you to attend to, that you have taken his pleasure upon the accompanying note, - If it has been sent to the Duke

No 19432

already submitted to them, I wish to extremely obeyed to you, but Mrs. M. Stephens drew that it was by mistake, that he wanted what had indeed been directed to be prepared with confidence that he would approve of the arrangement, had reached Carlton House, before my letter respecting the pleasure upon it

Done

March 19. 1812

I am my dear

Yours most truly

L. B. Sturges