Many thanks to you, my dear friend, for having so kindly satisfied Dr. Fisher's
- Mrs. I was in great anxiety about it.
I could not on any account that a step from any one connected with the
- now to exhibit, abandonment of our dear
- unhappy Prince. God knows, sufficient
- tion (without that) is coming upon her rapidly. Except by true contemplation for the distinctions conferred on yourself.

 ably that the universal aspect of the Public ratifies the favor & renders it a real dignity. Long may you enjoy it, with increase if it be possible of the ho-nest estimation which you receive for
