My Dear Sir

In the Multiplicity of your Business I would not intrude upon you, to offer my most sincere Congratulations, in the Honour so deservedly conferred upon you, by his Royal Highness, the Prince Regent. Yet I can confidently affirm that from Private, as well as Public Motives, no two Persons in the Kingdom felt a warmer Interest in every thing that concerned you, than my poor lamented Mother & I myself did; she was daily in Expectation of knowing the Result of your kind Application to Mr. Hervey of the Treasury, whose private attention to me, I can never forget. But by a Blunder of one of the Clerks in his Office, it was not until the other Day, that the Decision which the Lords of the Treasury came to, on the 3<sup>d</sup> of December, was communicated to me. I am in great Hopes, that in the Course of the next Week, I shall be able to benefit by that Decision, & to carry in to Effect that which had it pleased God, to continue Mr Waring's life, she repeatedly told me she meant to perform, which was, to request Mr McMahon to select which of the Turbans she liked best. They are only valuable, from being very uncommon in England.

I have taken the liberty to inclose you a Pamphlet that I have lately published, as it is on a Subject which may probably I think, be agitated in Parliament. I could not presume to offer a copy, to his Royal Highness, though I am well convinced that from its Importance, nothing relative to the Government of British India, has escaped his Notice.

I have the Honour to beg with the sincerest Respect & Esteem

Peterborough House My Dear Sir 28 March 1812 } Your Much obliged & Faithful Able Servant
John Scott Waring
