Mr Ryder has the Honor of humbly submitting to Your Royal Highness, that he finds upon enquiry, that His Majesty has never refused an application similar to that which is now made by the Sheriffs of London to Your Royal Highness; for them to ~~have the Honor~~ of waiting upon the Address; and under these circumstances Mr Ryder concludes that Your Royal Highness would not depart from the custom which has been uniformly observed, whether the Address in question is voted by the Common Council or the Society.

The Audience requested is a private Audience at which only the Sheriff and the City Remembrancer attend.

pleased to inform him on what day & how Your Royal Highness would appoint for these Gentlemen to attend at Carlton House, in order that he may return an answer to the application he has received without delay.

He presumes to suggest that tomorrow being Easter Monday, would probably be inconvenient; and that he would ~~request~~ permissi^{on} to wait upon Your Royal Highness before Your Royal Highness sees these Gentlemen, in order to lay before You the information he proposes of the course
