

Ld. Harcourt to G. Aven. Turner

Harcourt House

My Dear General

I came to Town on Tuesday last on purpose to pay my Duty to the Prince Regent to leave, but I was unfortunately confined to my House by an attack of the Gout; I must therefore rely upon your friendship to take a proper opportunity to express for me to His Royal Highness, how much I am mortified at being again prevented having that honour — with much regard

I am Dear General your faithful and obedient servant
Harcourt
