

Mrs. James (Eliza) Plunkett to Col. McMahon

Apr. 1 1812.

19513

Sir

In consequence of the enclosed letter from the Marchioness of Hertford I take the liberty, by her Ladyship's advice, of requesting you will have the goodness to present the letter I have the honor to transmit to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent who I trust will be most graciously pleased to comply with the request it contains when he honors my present situation with his attention.

I beg to offer my apologies for the trouble I now give you and to request the favor of your reading the enclosed papers, and if you judge it necessary do me the favor to seal it previous to its being presented to His Royal Highness - I request you will be so good to return the Marchioness's letter, and,

I have the honor to be

Yours most obedient
Humble servant

N^o. 1 Watton Place

Blackman's Road April 1st
1812

Eliza Plunkett

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet.]