Sir

His Royal Highness The Prince Regent has done me the favour to inform me, through The Duke of Cambridge, that He intended to come to my house this morning.

Nothing could make me more happy, especially since I have some matters of importance to lay before His Royal Highness, for which reason I should have requested the favour of an audience, had not the state of my health made me diffident, how far I ought to be able to undergo the exertion of going up and down stairs &c

His Royal Highness having however condescended to make allowance for my infirmity, I take thi

The liberty Sir to ask your kind advice, if you think His Royal Highness would prefer my coming this morning to Castleknock House, as if I better expect to receive His Command here - ?

A line from you, an Irish subject would infinitely oblige me, and I should be particularly thankful, (in case I am to turn to Castleknock House) if you could let me know at what hour I ought to be there?

I have the honor to be with the highest esteem Sir

April the 7th 1872

Your most obedient & humble servant
