Carlton House.

April 17.

My Lord,

I am commanded by the Prince Regent to entreat that your Lordship, as President of the Naval Charitable Society, will have the goodness to convey to the Committee His Royal Highness's best thanks and acknowledgments for their very handsome and acceptable Address, and to assure them of the sincere pleasure and satisfaction with which the Prince Regent promptly accepts the office of Patron to this very distinguished and glorious Society.

I am also, at the same time commanded by His Royal Highness to express his particular thanks to your Lordships for the obliging manner in which you have communicated the wishes of the most respectable, dignified, and illustrious names who compose this Committee.

I have the honor
to be, &c.

(Signed) J. McMahon
Right Hon. Lord Radstock.
