

Col. J. McMahon to the Lord Chancellor

Removed from numerical order.

(19605)

Private

Carlton House
April 5th 1872

My Lord.

I have selected from the very voluminous Mass of Letters which I have received from Dr Highmore since your Lordship had given an opinion on his Case, one of the most recent date, which gives any thing like an explanatory meaning of the Object he still so perseveringly pursues, and as I have been so far able to succeed with him in governing me an

The Lord Chancellor

assurance that he will patiently wait your Lordship's further consideration of the Circumstances he has submitted, without making any attempt again at the next Term to force a Hearing, I will hope that your Lordship, may at your first leisure, have the goodness to prepare me with something which may prevent the Prince Regent, & your Lordship, from any further trouble on this disagreeable subject. I have the Honour to be,

With great respect & esteem,
Your Lordship's
Faithful & Obedt Servt,
J. H. Mordaunt