Mr Ryder

Delivery of Exchequer Seal

Whitehall May 12
1812

Mr Ryder humbly submits to Your Royal Highness the property of his having the Honor of delivering ^{you}
Your Royal Highness the Exchequer Seal which he has this moment received from Mr Gray in order that Your Royal Highness may immediately deliver it to Lord Allenborough.

Mr Ryder respectfully subscribes to suggest this course, as it is that which was followed by His Majesty upon the death of Mr Pitt, and he understands from the Lord Chancellor that Your Royal Highness had been graciously pleas'd to signify your intention to follow that example.

Mr Ryder will appoint the Chief Justice of the Kings Bench to attend Your Royal Highness at any hour Your Royal Highness may be pleas'd to appoint.
