May 16. 1812.

At a meeting of Council

The President informed the Council that at the Anniversary Dinner of the Academy on the 2^d Inst. the Marquis of Stafford addressed him, stating, that he had received the commands of The Prince Regent to signify to the Members of the Royal Academy, His Royal Highness's hope, that the Lamp made by his order for the decoration of their great Room, is found adequate to the effect proposed, and His Royal Highness's desire, that the President & Council will, otherwise, instruct the Artist employed, to make any alterations in it which they may judge necessary.

Resolved, that the most Honorable
