

of Treason should be suffered to pass unnoted & unpunished; and if any example is necessary to be made, I trust it will be ^{from} amongst the highest Orders that can be found guilty, & not from amongst the lower, & insignificant Nob. a striking example of this kind, and immediately finish the Business. God however forbid that things should arrive at such a pitch, as to take any example necessary, but that every thing will return into a State of Peace & Tranquillity from the present appearance of Rich^d & Disorder.
I hope the Prince Regent preserves his Health, & Spirit, & is not at all affected by this temporary Humour. I beg you will offer my humble Duty to H: R: H: and assure His Royal Highness we are ever ready to obey his Commands, in any way that I can be useful. Accept yourself, & offer to H^{rs} Dear Mother, in all our Hopes, our Compliments, & best Wishes, & believe me ever to be with the most sincere regard & esteem

Your ever faithful Servant
Northumberland