My Dear Friend

Ballinacree

Wednesday
the 20th May 1812

I have called on you several times, altho' I wish for a more convenient time to meet with you, and to call at Carlton House, where you are sometimes engaged I did not like to do, as I have now determined on the sale of my House, & most part of the Furniture, don't you think I am bound in Duty & Respect, to make an offer of it, to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent, before I treat with any Person, if you think I should do so, Will you have the Goodness to present my Humble Duty, in the most Respectful manner to his Royal Highness, and say that the House and furniture, are at his Royal Highness's Commands, nothing on the face of the Earth would give me more Happiness I believe than if it should turn out, that my office may be of any accommodation to his Royal Highness Pray my Dear friend excuse all this trouble I am giving you, and with Sentiments of the greatest Regard. Believe me ever sincerely

Yours
