From
The Lord Mayor

Sir C. S. Hunter

Old Bailey
The 14th of June 1840

My Dear Sir

You will be pleased to hear that everything at the execution has gone off perfectly well. The crowd was not so large as I have before witnessed the Sheriff and myself had much conversation with him and in the full conviction that he was actually guilty into the presence of the Almighty.
He declared again and again that he was unconnected with any party whatever and that he did the deed for a bad propriate wrong. Every precaution has been taken to preserve the peace as you well know but the placard has been quite than you could suppose. I am Sir Yours truly
C. S. Hunter Mayor
