

Lord Darlington
May 23^o 1812.

A.A. No. 79.

19716

Sir.

I'mpress'd as I must be with a Conviction That any Intrusion upon Your Royal Highness's Time must at this particular Moment be greatly inconvenient & unwelcomely received from so humble an Individual as Myself, yet I can not refrain from presuming to make known to Your Royal Highness my very anxious Desire to offer You my feeble Services in whatever may be most consonant to Your Wishes.

As it is generally presumed & understood, That it is Your Royal Highness's Pleasure to make such a Change in Your confidential Servants as will most probably do away those Scruples which I have lately most conscientiously entertained respecting some great & important political Subjects, I shall feel in such an Event much Pride in obeying any Commands with which You may honor me, & shall be happy to exert to the fullest Extent my feeble Abilities in whatever Your Royal Highness may think me worthy of Your Notice.

I have the Honor to remain
Sir

Your Royal Highness's very dutiful & very attached Humble Servant

Cleveland House
Saturday Night May 23^d

Darlington