

The Duke of Norfolk
May 10/12

19771

The Duke of Norfolk having understood by Col:
McMahon, that if the D^s request of an audience was on the subject of communications with Grey & Grenville, that His M^t H. wished that matter, to remain in the hands where it had been, placed.

The Duke replied it
was, but the request was made, (with a knowledge of what has passed) but without the knowledge or participation of Lord M
