Lord Nova being acquainted with General Highway that he stated in the House of Lords this afternoon that General Highway's being never indicated any person except Major Wallerby the Secretary for the Cabinet, but that the fullest scope was given for the discussion of that point. He further declared that General Highway had not made any reservation of seats to be filled up according to your subsequent direction, and should all be contented his knowledge that your Royal Highness had not only sound infinitely above personal animosities but that you had not signified an exclusion against any individual whatever.

The Paper of which the enclosed is a Copy was carried by the Duke of Bedford to Lord Grey, who told Lord Mordaunt in the
