June 5th 1812

Half past Eleven P.M.

Lord Mordaunt has by long before your Royal Highness the answer which he has received from Lord Grey & Lord Grenville.

With great satisfaction he submits your Royal Highness's observation of that part of the letter in which the disposition is expressed to receive a com-munication of your Royal Highness's

Please thro' any channel whatsoever, tho' they object to unauthorised communication

Lord Mordaunt, that nothing may be left indistinct, most respectfully entreats Your Royal Highness's permission to propose a meeting with Lords Grey & Grenville, tho' their obvious endeavours to evade a conclusive discussion leaves
