Discharge of a Life Guards man

Dear General Turner

I have this moment received from General Barton the enclosed descriptive Return of Private William Helycock of the 2^d Life Guards, who has petitioned to commute Trial by Court Martial for selling some Lace belonging to Cooks of the Regiment, for general Service.

General Barton acquaints me that His Royal Highness The Prince Regent was pleased to command that the Returns of Men eligible for Medals, and likely to be reclaimed by Removal from London, should be given to Colonel Bloomfield, who I am told is not in

Yours,

Dear

would you My Dear General have the goodness, if any opportunity should occur, to show this Return to His Royal Highness and to let me know if there are any Commands on his Subject

I have the Honor to remain

very faithfully yrs
