Dear Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the proposed alterations in the regulations of the Bank of England. I have had the papers sent me, and I have had them examined by the directors of the Bank. They are of opinion that the alterations proposed are not necessary, and that the present regulations are sufficient to secure the safety and stability of the Bank.

Yours faithfully,
James O'Connell
