

ld. Ellenborough to Col. McMahon

June 19 1812

19852-3

Lord Ellenborough presents his Compl^s. to Mr McMahon & takes the liberty of requesting that he will have the goodness to obtain his Royal Highness the Prince Regent's signature at the earliest moment at which he conveniently can, to the paper sent from Lord Sidmouth's office, by Mr Bickett, which is necessary to put the proper offices in motion, in the despatch of the Conge d'honneur to Chester, — upon the return of which the other measures depend, which are essentially necessary to be concluded together with the consecration & confirmation of his brother before the A^{rch} of York leave Town, which he is shortly obliged to do to attend his to the experience he has had of Mr McKeaton's goodness to him, that he will excuse the trouble he is now presuming to give him.
