

Bishop of Salisbury to Gen. J. Turner

19898

My Dear Sir

Do not think me troublesome if I direct another Letter to you.

This is only to beg of you not to trouble the Prince Regent with any application upon my account, as it is my intention to be at Windsor within a few days.

The object of my Letter of yesterday was merely to ask you, whether his Royal Highness had signified his pleasure with respect to my leave of absence, or taken any notice of the application I had taken the liberty to make to his Royal Highness through you.

Pardon me for troubling you with this, & allow me to subscribe myself

Dear Sir

Your faithful servant

J. Savary
