42 Pall Mall
Monday night

Dear Sir,

I beg to return my best thanks for the tickets you did me the favour to place at my disposal for the fete at Vauxhall this night; and at the same time without your indulgence if what I have cause to add appear to be impertinent & offensive on my part.

I have heard by accident, but from what I have reason to suppose good authority, that it is the intention of certain illu-trious lady to be present at the Ball this evening. I know not whether it is right that I should mention the circumstance, but as by possibility such a visitant may not be expected, you will excuse excuse I hope my forwardness in making you acquainted with the fact. I am satisfied my intention is good, though I cannot flatter myself that the step is excusable. I am

Dr Sir
with truest Respect
Your Obedt. Servt

Robt. G. Hogans

It shoud make N's heart glad by communicating to him the extent of his infinite Obligations to your good Offices
