My Dear Sir

Permit me to entreat you to take some opportunity of conveying to His Royal Highness my humble but most grateful thanks for his generous consideration in returning the contents of the letter I was bold enough to lay at his feet. — And to assure His Royal Highness that I will endeavour to show in all occasions that may occur, how deeply sensible I am of the kind expressions, conveyed by His Royal Highness's commands in your letter which I have this day received. — And with the sincerest regard I remain Dear Sir your most humble Thos. Cholmondeley
