

20076
Sir R. Barclay to Col. McClellan

Private Rock office Monday 8th

My Dear Friend,

In my anxiety to explain certain points this morning, which I considered of infinite more importance than any one circumstance as relative to Myself, I omitted to lay before you one observation, viz<sup>ts</sup>, that if in your uniform kindness you should find Tomorrow from Hasting that the Door is shut for the present as to the Baltic (which I trust it is not) perhaps Cadiz since the <sup>is raised</sup> Siege may be open.

Mr Duff the late Consul General of Cadiz is said to be near 90th of Age.
Right Wth John McClellan to me

I feel confident you will excuse

My Dear Sir,

Yrs ever Sincerely
Robert Barclay
