My dear Sir

From your natural disposition to kindness and good nature, I am induced to believe your friendship & interference in the present season, and the Disputation of Parliament affords an opportunity at once of your most essentially serving, & giving me by a Seat, & I hope you are convinced that in any situation in life I should always consider myself highly honored by the very slightest favor of your con-sension in directing me by your advice & opinion, particularly in this & believe me Dear Sir very sincerely yours

Thomas Best
