Dear Sir When I saw you yesterday I would not say how much I felt obliged for your very handsome conduct towards me. but I do now entreat you to accept my most grateful thanks. I have a full sense of the obligations I am under and while I may say they will be acknowledged attention to my duty and year for the service of my Catholic Majesty, is all I can at present offer you. but I shall with one day be in my power to assure you how much I am

Dear Sir
