Provi. Prov., Leith, h. P.
Oct. 20. 1812

Dear Mr. Mackay,

I send by the post an official letter to you, with one enclosed, which is a Circulating letter to H. R. H. the Prince Regent as Duke of Rotheay, & which I trust you I present, if it is proper that such a letter should be addressed to H. R. H. on the present occasion - I am a candidate to represent the Prince, but I am ashamed to say, I can not learn here, whether it is right to ask the vote of H. R. H. or not.
Will you have the goodness to determine for me

Believe me to be,

very sincerely yours

Kinnaird
