A.A. No. 199

My Dear Sir 20214

By the alteration effected in the Pit of Drury Lane Theatre for the protection of the Prince Regent's Box I have every reason to believe, from observation, that the object is attained: and that His Royal Highness cannot now be annoyed by the intrusion which was so offensive to His Royal Highness when he honoured the Theatre with his presence. should any thing further prove necessary, it will be done.

I shall shortly have it in my power to lay before you an account of the extra expences incurred by the alteration, and additional furniture necessary to render his presents Box commodious and fit for the reception of His Royal Highness; and I have reason to hope the charges will not be deemed in any way extravagant.

I have the honour to be

My Dear Sir

faithfully yours
