Heaton House
in Manchester
15th June 1805.

Sir,

I fear your Royal Highness will think I have been very inattentive to the offer His Majesty was most graciously pleased to make me through your Royal Highness of a Cornetcy in the Royal Horse Guards, but the anxiety I felt to fix upon such a Person as would in my judgement meet the wishes of the King, and do credit to my recommendation has been the real cause of this long delay. I glatter myself I have now met with a Young Gentleman, Mr Tho^s Parker, who will come under that description, and

His Royal Highness
Commander in Chief who who I beg leave to recommend to your Royal Highness for the Cornetcy - He is the Eldest Son of a Gentleman of respectable Family & Fortune in this County, is a thoroughly well disposed young Man, and bears a most excellent Character - He is in his twenty first year, and if your Royal Highness thinks proper to give him the Appointment, he will be ready to join the Corps whenever he is ordered. -

I have the

Signed, Milton
