Jakarta. Dec 13th 1812.

My dear Sir,

I can not resist the wish of my most valuable friend Col Sturges, and therefore take the liberty of enclosing to you two letters, earnestly requesting that, if you should have an opportunity of furthering his wishes, you will have the goodness to do it. At all events I trust that you will excuse my thus troubling you. I am, my dear Sir, your

Very respectful Servant

Robt Seymour.
