

Jas Perry to Col. Beckwith

Dear Sir

I did myself the honour to call at your door, but was not so fortunate as to find you at home. I have since fortunately seen Mr Adams to whom I communicated the fact that I have this day received an Advertisement of which I inclose you the copy. It carries on its face the evidence of its origin by the promise of free sunsets. I understand that it is a garbled narrative with observations - I submit to you whether it will not be advisable to be before hand, that the whole truth without a remark may be laid before the public at once.

I have the honour to be with respect to Sir

Your faithful servant

Jas Perry
