My dear Sir

I hope this will be the last time of my giving you any trouble on the subject of Drury Lane Theatre, but I am now enabled to state a sum which I hope will be thought moderate, & which I trust the Committee may fairly be content to receive for the alterations, & addition of furniture, consequent upon the exchange of Boxes between His Royal Highness the Prince Regent & Lord Stolberg: & I have taken the liberty to address you now, because I am very desirous of closing every account before the New Year begins.

You have seen what has been done, & His Royal Highness has been graciously pleas'd to express his approbation of it. I will not state more but if the sum of £600 should not be thought too much, I will undertake to say the Committee will be satisfied with it.

The whole is paid, but it will soon be refunded.

In this is not included nor is it at all intended to include any charge for the alterations in the Bill for the protection of His Royal Highness's Regt.

I feel that I have occupied so much of your time & will sin no more.

Believe me

My dear Sir

Very truly Yours

S. Whithead
