

Ld. Rockingham

Dec. 18 1765

203

L Rockingham humbly acquaints his Majesty that he has seen L George Cavendish & has signified to him His Majesty's orders for the House of Commons to attend his Majesty tomorrow with the Address. L Rockingham tho' L George Cavendish has let the speaker know his Majesty's pleasure.

L Rockingham would have sent a sketch for her Majesty's answer but was assur'd by the Duke of Grafton that his grace had already prepared one & would send it this evening.

L Rockingham humbly presumes to congratulated His Majesty on the Event of this Day in the House of Commons. Nothing could be more disgraceful than the Attempt made. It was received in the House in the Manner it deserved & will be most generally blamed & resented.

Ld. Rockingham has presumed to transmit to His Majesty the Minutes of the House of Lords relative to the Message to Her Majesty & also a Copy of the Message with a proposed Answer.
