

J. H. Addington to Col. DeKahon

20316-7

Spring-gardens.

Monday Evening.

Dear Sir,

Since I am home, I have perused the Letters from Mr. Atkins which you left in my hands, and which I could not find a moment to do before I left the Office. They are now returned. —

I am unwilling to delay affording you the satisfaction of

20317

I send you post on the subject of it. —

I have the honor to remain,

Dear Sir,

Yours very faithful
John D. Leach.

J. H. Addington.

The Right Hon^{ble}

Col. DeKahon

of knowing that the papers are perfectly safe; and will explain the reasons, when I next have the pleasure of seeing you, why they have not been submitted to Mr. P. Phipps's consideration.
I inform you why it was not possible for me to have known any thing of this business. —

I have spoken to my Brother on the subject of Lady Hamilton's
'Statement', she will not fail to take an early opportunity of having a conversation with
