Dear Sir

Your Royal Highness are so obliging as to show so kindly an interest in the fate of my brother Edward, that I take the liberty of inclosing a letter I have just received from him, by which it appears that he is well and treated with the most marked kindness and attention by the General Officers into whose hands he be fallen.

I should feel much obliged by Your Royal Highness sending the letter to the Duke of York.

I have the honor to remain

Tr

Your Royal Highness's

most devoted servant
