

Mr. Atkin,

Dec. 30. 1812

20327

As

I request you will accept My thanks for the trouble you have been so obliging as to take, & without whom an opportunity offers you will do me the honor to present my most respectful homage to His Royal Highness the Prince Prigent requesting he will deign to believe that in all the empire there is not a person more sincerely attached to his Royal Person the interest Honor and success of anything but God combine to give him happiness and H.M.H. ~~of~~ the love of those whom Heaven has destined him to reign over; that when the contents of the parcel stood the liberty of addressing to him we laid before H.M.H. as a comfort for an instant doubt that God and man will do me that justice H.M.H. will see what I have done and give passage that they are not light or frivolous reasons which occasioned what I presumed I told concerning me personally in a separate letter contained in the parcel and should my perfect knowledge in matters but my be useful with regard to ———— ever be wanted I will ^{use} do me the honor ^{and I} There is a person on my depend upon and as soon presumed that whatever service might be required would be consistent with that purity and honor of conduct I have ever made my guide I shall always be at command; I cannot conclude this without again repeating my thanks to you and requesting when I come to town you will do me the favor to call upon me, as soon as you explain ^{my} ^{business} which are ~~not~~ to be unraveled

Dec 30 1812

Wetherburn

Yours with great truth
Yours most obliged and aff Wetherburn