Drury Garden
Wednesday evening

Sir

I beg Your Majesty to excuse the Liberty I take in troubling you; but having this morning heard some news from the House of Commons which I thought would not be unacceptable to Your Majesty; I thought it my duty to acquaint you wth it.

A motion was most insidiously & I may say indecently made to call for the American Papers which your Majesty promis'd the Parliament.

The motion was made by Mr. Rigby, & seconded by Mr. Geo:
Greenwill: the rest spoke in the order in clos'd.

There was some heat & a good deal of Ribbaldry: Bedford, Syson, Mr. Baker, Oswald, Mr. Saville & J. Shelly distinguished themselves against the motion.

I am with the greatest Duty & Submission

Yours

Your Majesty's most Devoted

Humble servant

J. S. Conway
